Editorial

I join with the millions of people who now grieve over the assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy. I regret the violence that caused this situation and see in it the same violence causing the assassination of 500 of our American young men every week in Vietnam plus the many hundreds of Asians suffering the same fate.

Fear, hatred and revenge, spawned in the minds of mothers, fathers and politicians, generates the violence affecting their children and whiplashing into their own lives.

Communication and transportation has made the world much smaller today. The range and death-dealing forces of modern weapons are placing all people within the scope of violence begetting violence.

As the great nation of this world we must now become the example for the peace loving or it is obvious that we can lead the world into economic as well as destructive chaos. We can't urge our children and fellow men to kill and expect to escape ourselves.

This report from Steven A. Gann is timely and well worth pondering. "It expresses a moment in time, a point in space where men, hardened by war, stop to search their hearts and minds for explanation and understanding." We at home must do the same.

—Allman Cook

Thursday, June 6 at 5:30 p.m. there will be a Mass for the repose of the soul of Robert Francis Kennedy at the Carmel Mission Basilica.

Rohr, Mrs. Philip H. Smith, Mrs. Carl E. Welchner, Dr. and Mrs. Nast Wolfson, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz T. Wurzmann.

Steven Gann of Carmel just recently completed his military obligation in Vietnam. He is a very serious young man whose heart has gone out to those struggling in that war-torn country. Feeling that there has been plenty of coverage on the military, political, religious struggles and economic sides of this war, he is devoting his efforts to reporting on the human aspects. This picture and report originated while he was on the first search and destroy mission out of Khe Sanh with the Marines.

Khe Sanh, South Vietnam

By Steven A. Gann

The Marine chaplain moved along the southern perimeter of Khe Sanh. At each section of the defense perimeter he would stop, and a platoon of Marines would gather about him.

There was the scent of rain in the air, as low moist clouds moved to conceal the mountain peaks surrounding the base. A wind could be heard as it sang through the steel-helmeted Marines; it could also be seen as it stirred the light refuse of war, and flung occasional pillars of red dust into the air.

And though there were pockets of silence where the chaplain stood, the sounds of war could be clearly heard. Outgoing artillery and mortar fire shocked the ears; a lesser but more persistent thunder could be heard in the hills as bombers sought to destroy hidden enemy bunkers.

The chaplain now approached the 3rd platoon of Fox Company. Each man in the area stopped his work, and gathering with his buddies, moved to the bunker, where now the chaplain paused.

The chaplain unwrapped a golden cross setting it on a table among pitted sandbags. A tape recorder sounded hymns of the church. This was a memorial service for the seven dead of the third platoon.

The young marines stood with helmets off, and for each prayer their heads were bowed. A somber group of men, so recently boys. The men of Fox 3 listened to the words of God, as spoken by the chaplain. And the chaplain talked and prayed with the men; a togetherness was attempted between God and man. The men listened to each short talk, and within each man an effort was made to understand why their buddies were dead.

And for a brief few minutes, though far from home, they paid a last tribute to their buddies, now gone.

Leash Laws Seem Imminent

The City Council last night gave encouragement to the Committee on Public Welfare, headed by Eben Whittlesey, regarding a leash law involving the Residential as well as Commercial Districts.

The Council showed concern that the existing leash law in the Commercial zones is not enforceable because, as Councilman Falge put it, "The dogs can't tell when they are leaving the Residential areas and entering the Commercial." There is no leash law in the Residential Districts, and roaming dogs continue to wander through main parts of town, thereby making the leash law unenforceable.

Councilman Herb Blanks again pushed for a "contract" dog catcher. Whittlesey said that he has noticed that there is a tendency for people to have bigger dogs than in the past and it is hard to keep them on our 4000-square-foot lots.

Other actions taken last night included the granting of permission to the Presbyterian Church to construct a parking lot facing Junipero.

Much discussion surrounded making Scenic Drive a one-way street. Hearings from several property owners indicated they were in favor of making this change. The Council feels traffic problems will be solved, and, upon an Engineering Survey, Scenic speed limit will be made 15 mph.

The Council accepted with regret the resignation of Dr. Ferdinand Haasis from the Forestry Commission.

The Library Board agreed to relinquish their lot to the City for a temporary parking lot with the provision that lighting and free parking to the Library employees be provided.

The hour dragged until almost midnight before the Council adjourned.

Chief Klaumann Named President

Carmel's Police Chief Clyde Klaumann was elected President of the FBI National Academy Associates at their four-day retraining seminar held here last week.

The announcement was made at the banquet on May 28. The Chief conducted all business during the remaining day of the conference and will reign as president for one year. The next retraining session will be held "down South somewhere," Chief Klaumann said. "It is up to the first vice-president to make such arrangements."

Theatre Review

THE GRADUATE, interesting, if not completely compelling comedy.

GRAND PRIX... a beautiful film cinemagraphically speaking. Stars actually race at high speeds while filming this magnificent picture in 70 mm film. Full stereophonic sound adds to the impact.

GOOD, THE BAD AND THE UGLY... Nearly three hours of guns and gore with the Civil War thrown in.

ENVIRA MADIGAN... A young aristocrat deserts his regiment and runs away with a beautiful tight-rope walker.

WILD IN THE STREETS... a teen idol runs for the presidency. Pretty girls and a kooky plot.

THE PARTY... Peter Sellers teams with Claudine Longet to bring to the movie industry another Sellers great. He plays a bungling film star who "crashes" a posh party.

BEDAZZLED... A cook sells his soul to the devil so that he might woo the waitress of his dreams.

COOL HAND LUKE... Paul Newman plays a tough, blue-eyed crook sent to the pen. Humorous in parts, serious in others.

YOU ONLY LIVE TWICE... James Bond and beautiful women team to destroy an underground plot. Different? No.

An ad in the Pine Cone has 4 times the reader impact of the daily newspaper.

ridge directs "Carnival," the other summer musical, which opens a week later.

Currently Eldridge is editor of the American Community Theatre Association (ACTA) newsletter and author of two plays running off-Broadway at New York's Dramarena. A native of Kentucky, he has earlier experience in acting, directing and teaching in his home state, Ohio and Indiana.

Children's Theatre Specials

"A Medical Evening With Moliere" will be performed by the Senior Group of the Children's Theater, sponsored by the Community Theater of the Monterey Peninsula. The public is invited to see these talented young performers in benefit performances on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, June 11th, 12th, 18th and 19th at 7:30 in the evening at the Circle Theater. The two-play program will include "The Imaginary Invalid" and "The Doctor In Spite of Himself."

The famous hypochondriac in "The Imaginary Invalid" complains not only of a million imaginary ills, but also of the astronomical amounts of his monthly apothecary bills. He reasons that if he marries his daughter to a doctor, he will have free medical care.

The second play, "The Doctor In Spite of Himself" is a sharp satire on the medical profession. The leading character, Sganarelle, has to be beaten before he will acknowledge that he is a doctor, which he is not. He then works apparently miraculous cures to the amazement of all.

Rehearsing court bows, satin and lace manners and other furbelows of Moliere comedy under the direction of Children's Theater director Marcia Gambrell Hovick are:

Local Christian Scientists Attend Annual Meeting

The First Reader of The First Church of Christ Scientist, Carmel James M. Scales and Mrs. Scales, Mrs. Clair Oates, Mrs. Darwin Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Porter of Carmel were among the over 7000 Christian Scientists gathered from around the world at Boston, Massachusetts, last Monday. The occasion was the Annual Meeting of the Mother Church.

The message from the Board of Directors, read by Arthur P. Wuth, its new Chairman, stressed individual effort as the first step in any attempt to help solve the world's ills.

"Poverty, ignorance, war, racial conflict, immorality, civil disorder, mental and physical enslavement exemplify standards torn down, spiritual ideals desecrated, the best of civilization fallen into disuse," Mr. Wuth said.

Gordon V. Comer, newly-elected President for the coming year, said that whatever the turmoil of the present times, spiritual values and all blessings they bring to humanity will survive.

Visitors to Boston this year find many changes due to the new Church Center construction which is expected to be under way for about two and one half years. Considerable demolition and foundation work has already been completed. Construction is expected to begin this month on a new Administration Building, a new Sunday School building and a large multi-purpose building.

Carmel Provides Most of Principals for 1968 Merienda Celebration

Each year the Monterey History and Art Association commemorates the founding of Monterey with a party called the Merienda in which descendants of early California and Monterey County settlers dress in period costumes of that day. Saturday was the 198th anniversary of the day.

Mrs. John Francisco Doud of Carmel was chosen by the association to serve as chap-erone to La Favorita, Alex Robison of Carmel who was attended by Miss Polly Branson, also of Carmel, and Miss Kate Hatton Branson of Carmel Valley.

Master of ceremonies was again Carmel's Ted Durein whose wife, Mrs. Durein was chairman of hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Clyn Smith. Gus Arriola, the cartoonist, and Mrs. Peter Delfino of Carmel Knolls were in charge of ceremonial arrangements. Prof. A. Boyd Newborn, association president, introduced La Favorita and her attendants.

Mrs. Doud's grandparents settled in California in the early 1850's. Her husband is the grandson of Francis Doud who reached San Francisco in 1849 after a long voyage around Cape Horn. Later he was sergeant-at-arms during the Constitutional Convention at Colton Hall.

Polly Campbell is the daughter of Superior Court Judge Gordon Campbell and Mrs. Campbell. Graduate of Carmel schools, she attends Monterey Peninsula College. Her father was raised in Carmel and was a Stanford graduate. Her great grandfather was the first dean of the Santa Clara Law School. Her grandfather, city attorney Argyll Campbell, wrote the charter for the city of Monterey and created the Monterey airport district. He was active in keeping Carmel a unique community.

Kate Hatton Branson, La Favorita's other attendant, like Alex Robison before her, has been educated at Santa Catalina School for Girls where she is vice-president of the Junior class. She is the daughter of Monterey County Supervisor Willard Branson and Mrs. Branson (Natalie Hatton). The Hatton family, Carmel Valley, are legendary figures in the early history of the area.

Fashion Show At FBI Wives Luncheon

While their husbands were attending re-training classes at the Holiday Inn last week, the FBI National Academy Associates wives were enjoying a lovely Fashion Show and Luncheon at the Beach Club at Pebble Beach.

A cooperative effort of the Business Association and all the apparel shops of Carmel, the style show carried out the theme of "Shopping for the Bride and Groom's Trousseau." This marked the first Fashion Show sponsored by the Carmel Business Association.

There were 67 elegant costumes shown by 41 Carmel Shops. Each business donated gift certificates, and all the FBI wives were recipients of at least one such certificate.

The show was arranged by Business Association Secretary Kaye Scott, and the fashions were coordinated by LaVonne Altman and Pat Brauner. The background music was provided by Wanda Kelly, Harnish Music Company.

The ladies began the day by taking an extensive tour of the Monterey Peninsula before meeting for lunch and show at the Beach Club. After the Fashion Show the wives were returned to Carmel where they spent the remainder of the afternoon browsing through Carmel shops. That evening, they joined their husbands for a Western Barbecue. Mrs. Ruth Klaumann was chairman of the wives' activities.

Highlights of the next day included a flower arranging demonstration by Karen Mignano at the Holiday Inn and a tour of the Mission. At a reception and banquet that evening, the ladies joined their husbands in welcoming Carmel Chief Clyde Klaumann as the new FBI National Academy Associates President.

Musical Comments

Loyal friends and fans of Gilbert Boyer, veteran Carmel concert pianist and teacher, followed him over to the Monterey Peninsula Buddhist Temple in Seaside Saturday evening. Never was a concert given in a more delightful setting. Beginning with the sight of the large tranquil pool outdoors, designed and planted as only the Japanese know how, we felt as though we had stepped into a corner of Japan. As we entered the small auditorium next to the temple, we were further enchanted by the sight of the brilliantly lacquered, nine and one-half black concert grand on the stage. The Yamaha piano was loaned for the occasion by the Academy of Music in Seaside.

Mr. Boyer had planned a most fascinating program which included a first performance of Triad for Piano by Hascal Vaughn Stewart, one of Carmel's very own composers. This was a set of three short pieces in tricky rhythms and contemporary harmonies, most original.

Besides several numbers by Chopin and Debussy for which he is well known, he gave an excellent performance of Mendelssohn's Rondo Capriccioso in the first half of the program.

In the second, he played the nostalgic Maya and the Nightingale by Granados, the sparkling Three Maries by Villa-Lobos, the clever scherzo, The Cat and the Mouse by Copland, and a charming little group, Memories of Childhood, by Octavio Pinto. Pinto, the husband of Guimar Novaes, the famous Brazilian pianist, is a personal friend of Mr. Boyer.

The program ended with the brilliant Toccata by Khachaturian. For an encore, Mr. Boyer chose a delightful Prelude by Mompou.

One missed the little remarks and stories about the composers with which he introduced each piece in his Debussy and Chopin lecture-recital series. Since he used the music for many of the pieces on the longish program, it might have pleased his audience even more, had he limited his program to those pieces he had memorized and played so supremely well, and used the time gained for his interesting comments on the music.

A reception for Mr. and Mrs. Boyer and Hascal Stewart was given at the Academy of Music following the concert. Carmelites Barbara and Eric Norberg, Kay Scott, Helen Mears, Doris Wolsey, and Laura Durgin were given an opportunity to meet the faculty and tour the new building to see all the facilities. M.H.

Garden Tour

Monday, June 10th is the date selected for the XVth Garden Tour to be presented by Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services for the benefit of the Visiting Nurse Association. Ten gardens, all within the Del Monte Forest, will be open to visitors from ten a.m. till five p.m. Mrs. Archer Allen, Project Chairman, and Mrs. Richard L. Bower, Garden Selection Chairman have chosen gardens of contrasting type, ranging from spectacular estates to owner designed and maintained gardens. An internationally famous rose and perennial garden overlooking Stillwater Cove is breathtaking in color and planning. An historic Spanish Hacienda in the Monterey Peninsula County, with winding garden paths thru tall pines and oak, recalls the tranquility of early California living.

A formal tea will be served at Robert Louis Stevenson School from three p.m. Mrs. Arthur Dresser is Tea Chairman, and Miss Ruth Blanchard is Food Chairman. Outstanding flower arrangements will complement heritage silver services and exquisite linens. The Beach and Tennis Club will serve a pool-side snack luncheon. Reservations are limited to three hundred persons and there will be two servings, one at noon and the other at one o'clock.

Homes on the tour will be those of Messrs. and Meses. S.F.B. Morse, Robert O. McMahan, Edwin Bedell, Carlton B. Swift, Benjamin Bingham, Stanley S. Simonson, John R. Robinson, Mrs. Archibald D. Kirkland, Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Kenneth P. McNaughton and Col. and Mrs. Robert R. Robertson.

Tickets will include the customary gate fee, which has been graciously waived for ticket holders by the Del Monte Properties Company. They may be purchased at the entrances to the 17 Mile Drive, or at the gardens on display. For detailed information, phone, Mrs. William F. Pratt, 624-8889.

Two Carmel High Students Win Nationwide Scholarships

David H. Fiscus, Division Manager of the California-American Water Company presents Don E. Harrison and Adrian Arima with scholarship awards. Both are students of Carmel High School and were two of the three winners in California. There were only 24 awards given, scattered throughout the nation. Don plans to attend Reed College this fall where he will major in Biology or Physics. Adrian will attend Stanford where he will major in Mathematics. Shown with the students are Don's mother, Mrs. Don E. Harrison, Jr., Adrian's family Dr. and Mrs. James K. Arima, and Carmel High School Principal Arthur J. Gumbrell. (See letter to editor this page).

Letter To Editor

Dear Mr. Wells:

It might be interesting to point out to you, that it is most unusual to have two winners from the same high school. The competition for these scholarships is among a composite population of over 4½ million people which make up the service area of the subsidiary water companies of the American Water Works Company System, of which your water company, California - American Water Company, is one. The various systems are scattered throughout 19 states in this country, and the various companies serve in over 500 cities and communities in these states. The participants in the competition for these scholarships came from this entire area.

Adrian Arima and Don Harrison, in winning these scholarships, went through a severe competition based on College Entrance Examination Board tests which were administered by the Educational Testing Service in Princeton, New Jersey and, since there were only 12 issued this year, you can readily see how unusual it is that 16 2/3 percent of these winners should come from Carmel High School. I think it speaks very eloquently for the especially fine educational system which is supervised by Mr. Arthur Gumbrell, his board of education and staff.

Middle School Science Fair

By Alison Faul

The Carmel Middle School's Fifth Annual Science Fair last Tuesday was a great success. Aside from the fantastic projects, they made a considerable amount of money. This money will pay for a weather station that will be built on the campus.

Science teachers Miss Archer, Mrs. Fortune, Mr. Kolb, Mr. Reuter, Mr. Schut, and Mr. Schantz, showed a lot of interest in the projects, and so did the guests and parents. The most fascinating projects were done, of course, by the 7th and 8th grades, but the 5th and 6th grades did a great job, too.

The projects ranged from such things as "The Behavior of a Monkey, And How He Reacts To Different Types of Food" to "Who Is God?"

Other projects pertained to drugs, such as — "Is Doriden (a sleeping drug). Habit In Rats?" and "What Do Students Think of L.S.D. and Marijuana?"

Data was collected, and conclusions were made, thus ending the Carmel Middle School's Fifth Annual Science Fair.

Pacemaker

Mrs. Lucial C. Oard, the mother of Ruth Mapstead, returned recently from Community Hospital where she had an emergency heart operation last week. With the aid of a Pacemaker, she is improving rapidly.

The Middle School Science Fair featured many outstanding projects including this thesis "Who Is God?"

"BENVENUTO DI ROMA, NELO!"

by PHYLLIS JERVEY

The above "Welcome Home" sign greeted Carmel author Nelo Drizari recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Powell in Carmel. Their living quarters and patio were colorfully decorated with appropriate placards which heralded his latest book, "Scanderbeg".

Among the guests were Georges Henri Picard, chairman of the French Dept. at the Defense Language Institute and Mrs. Picard; Colonel and Mrs. Louis T. Lazzarini; Major and Mrs. Owen C. Baker; Mrs. Thomas G. Tousey; Miss Sally McPhail; Gary K. Lothe; Miss Joan Edmonds; Mr. and Mrs. David Hinkley; Warren Fishburn and the talented host and hostess. Glenn is a creative artist of note and his wife Alice one of the best linguistic teachers at the Carmel Woods School.

Nelo Drizari returned recently from Rome where he attended the solemn ceremonies at St. Peter's Basilica honoring the memory of Scanderbeg, the 15th Century Albanian knight who saved Europe from the devastation of the Ottoman Empire. On this occasion, services of the Byzantine rite were held in St. Peter's Basilica.

For the first time in the history of the Vatican, the ancient liturgy was said in the Albanian language. Two bishops and an abbot of Albanian descent conducted the regular mass in memory of the 500th anniversary of the death of Scanderbeg. Meanwhile a large choir of brilliantly costumed young Albanian women from Calabria and Sicily sang a five century old Albanian hymn. Present at the impressive services were Cardinal Maximilian de Furstenburg and Cardinal Gregorio Pietro Agagianian, in addition to thousands of worshippers who had come from European countries and America.

The following day, Pope Paul VI, flanked by the same two cardinals, honored the memory of Scanderbeg. He first granted an audience to a handful of prominent Americans of Albanian descent, among whom was Carmel's Nelo Drizari. Then the Pontiff read a Papal message from the throne of the Basilica in which he highly eulogized the heroic struggles of Scanderbeg against the mighty legions of Sultan Murad II and Sultan Mehmed II, the proud conqueror of Constantinople.

Nelo Drizari founded the Albanian language teaching facilities at the Presidio of Monterey Language School, today's Defense Language Institute. Retired now, Nelo devotes his time to writing and oil and water color painting in his Carmel Casanova studio.

Luggage And Coats Needed

There is a great need for luggage, coats and other clothing for girls, between the ages of 16 to 22, who will leave the Peninsula for training in the Job Corps, reports Helen Lambert of Hatton Fields.

These girls of poor backgrounds and hopeless outlook, are given training in such occupations as nurse's aide, drafting, food service, and key punch as well as remedial education. The centers are in Los Angeles, Oregon, and New Mexico.

Mrs. Spears Ruskell of Carmel, interviews the girls on the Peninsula.

AN UNUSUAL OX YOKE FOR SALE!

A real antique and museum piece of unusual character and design.

Used in Massachusetts circa 1815. Ingeniously designed and engineered to compensate for use with fat and thin oxen of different size and weight, and of unequal pulling ability. (It's not like the one you customarily see.)

Should grace the gate of a local ranch or over a fireplace (big one) as a decoration and conversation piece. Have spent hundreds of dollars lugging it around the country and on storage and shipping.

Perhaps you have a use for it, or know someone that does, who would like to take over my "problem" and utilize it!

Only $495.00

For more details 'phone 624-6419, or eves. 624-8973 — or better still see it in the window at No. 6 Lincoln Lane on Lincoln between 5th and 6th.

PARTY PLANS . . .

by Phyllis Jervey

"When in Rome, Dine as the Romans Do!"

In this issue of the PINE CONE we've told about Nelo Drizari's fascinating stay in Rome and the historic happenings he attended. We are fortunate that this talented author of "Scanderbeg," and other popular books, is a man of his word and also that he is a discriminating gourmet. True to his promise, he brought back some famous recipes for the exclusive use of "Party Plans," authentic Roman dishes which Nelo had especially prepared for him while visiting the Holy City.

When asked by friends where he would like to dine, Nelo replied "I have always heard about Alfredo's, is it still the same?" To prove that this internationally famous Roman restaurant is as popular as ever, the elder Alfredo himself presided over the two gustatory treats we shall soon give in detail. Alfredo, Senior, became host to cafe society way back when Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks were known as the most glamorous and happy couple in the cinema world. They gave Alfredo a golden fork and spoon for his fettuccini (noodles, butter and freshly grated cheese). From then on Alfredo's was the place to dine in Roma!

Today, Nelo tells us that the walls of Alfredo's are decorated with autographed photographs of hundreds of movie stars, both American and European. Also there are such celebrated world leaders as ex-Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy, plus King Hussein of Jordan and the Shah of Iran . . . and many others. Alfredo, Sr. gave Mr. Drizari his famous

Fettuccini Alfredo

Half tsp. salt; 2 eggs, well beaten; 1 to 1½ cups sifted flour; 3 qts. boiling water; 2 tsps. salt; ¼ cup freshly grated Parmesan cheese; ¼ cup melted butter.

Add salt to eggs. Gradually stir in flour to make a stiff dough. Turn out on floured surface. Knead until dough is stiff and elastic, adding more flour as needed. Cover with a towel and let rest 15 minutes. Cut dough into two parts and roll out each on floured surface as thin as possible. Sprinkle these fettuccini sheets and let dry an hour or until a deep golden color. Cut into long strips, 8 inches or more in length and an eighth of an inch in width. Drop into boiling salted water and cook no longer than 8 minutes. These noodles should be tender but firm . . . never soft. Drain well, place on large hot platter. Add cheese and butter and lightly toss with fork and spoon. Serve immediately. Pass freshly grated Parmesan cheese.

Another very special go-along presented by Alfredo is the perfect accompaniment, especially for a romantic Italian al fresco supper under the stars or indoors by candlelight.

Alfredo's Orpelet Flambee

Three eggs; dash of salt; 1 tsp. sugar; ¼ tsp. grated lemon rind; 2 tbsps. orange marmalade; 2 tbsps. confectioner's sugar; 3 jiggers rum or kirsch, warmed.

Beat eggs lightly with silver fork. Add salt, sugar and lemon rind; stir well. Melt butter in omelet pan. Do not let butter brown. Pour in eggs when butter is just bubbling. Cook over moderate heat, shaking pan so that mixture browns lightly but evenly and does not stick. Remove from heat; spread marmalade on half of omelet; fold over. Dust with confectioner's sugar. Slip onto hot flame-proof dish; pour rum or kirsch (warmed, to be sure) over hot omelet; this makes two adequate servings, just right for that Rome-fun supper a due!

A story about Italian cuisine would never be complete without mentioning the exciting demitasse, cafe espresso. Marvelously strong and dark, true espresso is made in its own machine. As its name implies, it brews by steam pressure and rapid filtration. Another good Italian coffee is made in a macchinetta (little machine), a Mediterranean-style drip pot that is flipped upside down for brewing specially pulverized coffee. The liquid comes out pungent and black as sin. The traditional cream is replaced by a twist of lemon peel when serving Italian coffees. Often a teaspoon of rum or anisette is added to the demitasse, Italian style. There is also cappuccino whose nutmeg color is reminiscent of the robes of Capuchin monks. Pour equal parts espresso and very hot milk simultaneously into dinner-size cups. Muddle with a cinnamon stick and top with freshly grated nutmeg. This may also be done with hot chocolate or cocoa. Spumone Ice Cream, fresh fruits such as grapes, ripe cherries and plums and those wonderful Italian cheeses, the rich Gorgonzola, delicate Bel Paese or the rather strong Pecorini made of ewe's milk, are all delicacies found in ancient and today's Rome. Roasted chestnuts or green almonds are always in demand along with the varied coffees and liqueurs. Outdoor dining and dancing are everywhere in Rome during the summer, so why not duplicate in your own way the pleasures of that most famous of all cities . . . Roma? Right here in Carmel, thanks to Nelo!

From A Librarian's Notebook

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg, City Librarian

Libraries grind as slowly as the mills of the gods. About six months ago someone wanted a book on The Hermitage Museum and was shocked no end to learn that we had none. Almost immediately we received a list from Canada showing books on museums and we bought several, one being on The Hermitage. At long last it is here, catalogued, and ready for circulation. Probably the patron is now touring Russia, but those left in Carmel will enjoy the book for it's very nice illustrations in color or accompanied by well written critical explanations of the paintings and their artists. Pierre Descargues did the text. The title is THE HERMITAGE MUSEUM, of course.

The new Fielding TRAVEL GUIDE TO EUROPE, 1968, has come. We have standing orders for the Fodor guides and the Companion guides.

Easy Recipes For Artichokes

"Artichokes a la Carte," a demonstration lecture by Chef Gino, will be presented Tuesday, June 11, at 1:30 p.m. at the Fellowship Hall of the Church of the Wayfarer. The program is sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service.

Gino Airaldi, an Italian gourmet-traveler, has gathered an intimate knowledge of foods and cooking methods, and says emphasis will be on the unusual, NOT the difficult.

The demonstration is open to the public.

to come up wanting. Lyman Lundeen says, "Is it possible that any modern man, in a world of highly developed science and technology, could believe all these things? Surely, for a man to cling to the mysteries of faith must require either the complete rejection of intellectual respectability or some really weird mental gymnastics." This book is a bombshell for parents of present and future college students, and for the rest of us who struggle to understand what is going on.

There is a rumor to the effect that a successor to Tolkein may be a young man named Peter Beagle, who lives in Santa Cruz. His book entitled THE LAST UNICORN is a brilliant book and has been compared to Tolkein's Lord of the Rings. Having only started the book, this librarian will have finished long before this column goes to press. It starts delightfully. You should know about it. Everybody should know about it.

Finally, let us mention the new book from May Sarton. Once again she writes of her own life, of her move to New England, of her buying a house there, and of her getting settled in and loving it. A pleasure to read. The title is PLANT DREAMING DEEP.

Community Church Dedicates Gifts

A handmade book, bound in English morocco, on hand-made vellum, and a black walnut repository, carved by Howell Armor of Carmel, were dedicated recently at the Community Church of the Monterey Peninsula on Carmel Valley Road.

The book was the gift of Leo Miller in memory of his wife, Grace. It will be inscribed with names of those who have made special gifts to the church. The repository was made by Mr. Tom Broad-bent.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE RADIO PROGRAM

"Where Does Good Government Start?" is the title of Sunday morning's program in the Christian Science radio series "The Bible Speaks to You." It will be broadcast over station KGO at 7:30, KRML at 7:45 and KDON at 8:45. How much do people, and the moral qualities they express, have to do with good government? is one of the questions to be explored in this religious discussion.

Christian Science Sunday Sermon

"God the Only Cause and Creator" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday. The services at the Carmel Church, Monte Verde and Sixth, begin at 11:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. Sunday School session begins at 11:00 a.m.

Everyone is welcome. The Golden Text, which states the theme of the Lesson, is from Isaiah: "Lord, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou also has wrought all our works in us."

Also included are selections from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker

Eddy. Among these is the following: "It should be thoroughly understood that all men have one Mind, one God and Father, one Life, Truth, and Love. Mankind will become perfect in proportion as this fact becomes apparent, war will cease and the true brotherhood of man will be established."

What do you tell your child about God?

Or, more important, what do you tell yourself about God?

Nothing has greater bearing on your well-being and your child's.

The confidence you have in God's love helps your child feel God's presence. It helps him gain confidence in good. And it creates an atmosphere of harmony, which is so important in any home.

The Bible, books, and periodicals in our Reading Room can help you research and prove for yourself the truth about God and man. And this can bless all the members of your family.

No Rummage Sales At Sunset

The question of policy on rummage sales at Sunset was finally decided upon at the last Carmel Cultural Commission meeting.

There will be none, with Chairman Gilman casting the dissenting vote. Most of the Commissioners felt that Rummage Sales were not cultural and had no place in the Center. Commissioner Patricia Faul said, "I don't consider it a cultural use... there are other places they can be held right here in Carmel."

The Commission considered a request from the Carmel Unified School District for the use of the North Playfield for adult and Youth Center slow pitch softball. Their request of the city was to level the land and remove the debris, which was all right with the Commission. On the other hand, the Commission demanded that the School District be liable for any injuries.

At the City Council meeting there was concern about the raised prices for Sunset Theatre use. The Council referred it back to the Commission for additional consideration. It was considered and the general consensus of the Commission was as Robert Evans said, "I can't see what the big fuss is all about." After questioning Sunset Manager Cole Weston, the only user affected by the rate change at present is the Explorer's Club. It was left for future discussion and the old operating rate remains official.

Space Requests

Many requests for space at Sunset were before the Commission, but because there has been no Master Plan initiated the requests were generally denied. However, Black Lion Productions (film company) was granted the use of a room previously not considered "rentable." They will use it merely for an office, and do their film work on location.

Commissioner Evans said "We are establishing a bad, dangerous precedent."

Mrs. W. R. True suggested that the gym be turned into a workshop of arts and crafts. The Commission received her letter, discussed it briefly, and seemed to feel that there would be too much construction, plumbing, etc., involved before a Master Plan was founded. All rooms are rented on a month to month basis.

United California Bank executives: (l-r) Carmel Valley Branch Manager Scott Rambeck; Chief Economist, Dr. Ray Jallow, and Carmel Branch Manager Don Nelson.

"Monterey County will enjoy good growth in all economic indicators during 1968. About 12,000 persons will be added to the area's population over the year, and the population count will be 270,000 by year end, 1968. In addition, the economic base of this, the newest metropolitan area in the state of California, will generate 3,000 new jobs for an average non-agricultural employment of 66,000 for the year as a whole.

Personal income in the County will rise to $890 million or 8% over 1967, as per family income will average $10,200 compared with the national average of $9,700 in 1968. Retail sales volume in the area will advance $20 million to $345 million. Dwelling unit authorizations will total a modest 1,500. The area is expected to grow to a population of 320,000 by 1975 and will exceed 375,000 by 1980."

These were some of the local highlights of a presentation on Monday, May 27, by Dr. Ray Jallow, vice president and chief economist of United California Bank, before a group of more than 200 of the Monterey area business leaders and United California Bank branch managers gathered for the occasion at the Monterey Peninsula Country Club.

Touching on the National scene, Dr. Jallow's comments included:

During 1968, Gross National Product should rise by 7% to a total of $840 billion, 3% of the increase will represent inflation and the remaining 4% represents the real growth.

The Consumer Price Index is expected to rise by 3% during 1968.

The money supply is expected to rise only moderately, about 2.5% over 1967.

The best hope for the U. S. balance of payments deficit (even with reasonable success of the announced restrictive programs on investment, lending, and foreign travel) is to remain within the $3 billion level in 1968.

The high increase in business inventories during the first half of 1968 will ease as business begins to consume its accumulated surplus.

It would not be desirable for the U. S. to increase the price of gold. Not in 1968 nor in the near future will the American dollar be devalued in terms of its relation to gold. The only logical and effective solution to the gold problem is to reinstate the confidence in the dollar in the international markets. No other financial gimmick or temporary agreement can last too long. This will call for an austerity program at home.

In looking beyond 1968, Dr. Jallow said that statistics indicate a tremendous increase in family formations. This will naturally have its impact on the growth of consumer demand.

A detailed report on most of these subjects has been prepared for California business executives and firms in United California Bank's 1968 FORECAST.

DEL MONTE KENNEL DOG SHOW

by Lester E. Wallack

After several years of anything but perfect weather Mother Nature finally relented and supplied the Del Monte Kennel Club with the most perfect dogshow day imaginable. Bright sunshine combined with cooling breezes afforded daylong comfort to spectators, exhibitors and canine competitors alike. This year the show moved from the lawn in front of the Del Monte Inn to the Polo Field. While lacking the picturesque background of former years the increased area and more level terrain permitted more and larger rings than formerly. This permitted the larger breeds especially, to move more freely when under examination for gait or action. With thirteen rings for what is normally known as the conformation classes and three for the Obedience work and with an 8:30 AM start it was possible to finish the judging of the various Groups while there was still plenty of sunshine left. This is a rarity in these days of increasingly large entries. The number of dogs entered here was 1509 a nice increase of 130 over last year.

Owing to lack of space it is impossible to list the winning dog in every one of the exactly 100 breeds represented at this show by entries of as low as one dog in the rarer breeds to nearly 100 in Poodles, 98 to be exact. However the Winners of the six Variety Groups can be given.

Group 1, Sporting Breeds, was judged by Mr. Fred M. Hunt of Richmond, Indiana. It was a beautiful group and the Irish Setter with his glowing red coat and animation not only captivated the large gallery but Mr. Hunt as well for he received the award for Best Sporting Dog. Ch. Webline Wizard of Macapa, he is owned by E.J. Leeds of Pacific Palisades. A magnificent Black Cocker Spaniel, Ch. Nor-Mar's Nemo was a close second. Owned and Shown by Mari Doty of Fresno.

Group 2, Hound Breeds, was judged by Mrs. Charles D. Cline of Los Angeles. She found her winner in the 15" Beagle, Ch. Page Hill Trademark, with a Bloodhound with a great personality in the second slot.

Group 3, Working Breeds, was judged by Mr. Len Carey of Honolulu. There had been an exceptional entry of Great Danes, (72 of them) so the breed winner must have been a real good one. Evidently Mr. Carey thought so for he selected Ch. Honeygold Von Overcup for the top spot. She is owned by Mr. & Mrs. J.L. Hatch of Rolling Hill Estates. Another very fine dog, an Old English Sheepdog, was runner-up.

Ch. Melbees Chance's Are, a Kerry Blue Terrier owned by Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Schlesinger of Kansas City and handled by Rick Chashoudian, won Best in Show honors at the 43rd Del Monte Kennel Club Blue Ribbon Show held on the Collins Polo Field at Pebble Beach for the first time. Mrs. William Crawford of Pebble Beach, Bench Show Chairman for the Show, presented the S.F.B. Morse's trophy while O.C. Harriman of Pebble Beach, who served as Best in Show Judge, looks on. Over 1500 dogs were entered in the event.

JULIAN P. GRAHAM STUDIO.

Group 4, Terriers, was also judged by Mr. Carey who had a busy day as earlier he had judged the large Poodle entry. The winning Terrier was a splendid specimen of a Kerry Blue. Full of life and showing beautifully it was a popular win. My catalogue is not marked as to who was second.

Group 5, Toy Breeds, is always amusing as these little fellows have to be lifted to a table for the judge's examination. An exquisite Pekingese caught Mr. William Bergum's eye and finally was motioned to the No. 1 sign. This one is owned by Mr. Michael Wolf of Woodmere, Long Island, N.Y. just about as far as you can get from Carmel without getting your feet wet.

Group 6 is called the Non-Sporting Breeds. And here a well-known English Bulldog, a real scowling fellow with the heart of a lion and as gentle as a kitten made another popular win. Ch. Estrid Jupiter, he is owned by John O'Melveny of Los Angeles.

So now it was 6:45 PM and

Mr. O. Carley Harriman of Pebble Beach, entered the ring to make his selection of Best Dog in Show from these six group winners. I would like to digress here for a moment to mention that with over two thousand judges approved by the American Kennel Club to judge one or more breeds there are only 33 licensed to judge ALL of the 115 recognized breeds. Of these 33, eight reside in California and we in Carmel can boast of having two of them, Mr. Harriman and Mr. Derek Rayne. In addition, Mr. Rayne is also approved to judge all Degrees in Obedience. But to get back to Mr. Harriman, it did not take him long to make his choice. After a brief but thorough examination and despite the crowd's enthusiasm for the Irish Setter, he came over to the judge's table, marked his book, turned and pointed to the Kerry Blue Terrier as his choice for the highest award of Best in Show.

And so ended another day spent among fine people, fine dogs and most pleasant surroundings. To those who have never attended a dog show although you love dogs I say "Do so." You have a real treat as well as an interesting experience in store for you. To those few who do not like dogs I extend my sincerest sympathy. And to the Del Monte Kennel Club, Heartiest Congratulations on another great show.

"Aw, come on, gimme a kiss" says Kazie Krepe Suzette to little Susie Beam of Carmel.

"How's the weather down there," says Mr. Marque to his Mistress Jo Ann Seivertson of San Rafael.

Ch. Estrid Jupiter, first in non-sporting group.

At Ringside, (l-r) are Mr. and Mrs. O. Carley Harriman of Pebble Beach, Mr. Len Carey of Honolulu and Mrs. Lester E. Wallack of Carmel. Standing is Mrs. Charles A. Leonard of MPCC. Mr. Harriman judged Best in Show and Mr. Carey judged the Working Group and the Terrier Group.

Peninsulans Take High Honors At Concours

Two of the top honors in the 18th annual Concours d'Elegance last Sunday went to two Pebble Beach car owners.

J. van Amerongen won the Reserve Trophy with his 1965 Bentley S-3 Sedan and David Taylor won the 3rd annual Lucius Beebe Memorial Trophy with his 1929 Rolls-Royce Phaeton.

Overall winner of the show was Stanley W. Good Jr. of San Francisco. His 1964 Maserati Berlinetta Coupe also won first place in the class for European sports cars priced over $7,000.

Both van Amerongen and Taylor won their high awards by placing in their respective classes; van Amerongen taking a first in the Bentley division and Taylor taking a second in the prewar Rolls-Royce division.

They led a large number of local residents in capturing the coveted Concours awards at Pebble Beach.

Local winners by class were:

European cars priced under $4,000 — Randy Reinstedt of Carmel, second.

European passenger cars — Mrs. Philip Smith of Carmel, third.

Prewar American classic cars, open — Dale H. Williams of Carmel, third.

Antique and vintage cars — Alton Walker of Pebble Beach, second.

Rolls-Royce closed, prewar — Alton Walker of Pebble Beach, second.

There were more than 100 cars entered in 14 different divisions. A total of 25 judges inspected the cars during the entire show.

School Salaries Board Approves

purpose of rewarding exemplary performance on the part of teachers next school year. This proposal met with opposition from the many teachers present. Raymond Gere of Carmel High School felt that regardless of the good intent, it might create "pettiness and bitterness." The amount added to the yearly salary would be $75, according to Supt. Dr. Harris J. Taylor.

Teaching Principals

Mr. Peter Glod will be Teaching Principal at Woods School. He has been assistant principal at Carmelo. Philip Smith was appointed Teaching Principal at Carmelo School where he has been teaching.

Next Board Meeting

Next board meeting will be next week, Wednesday, June 12 at 8:15 following the high school graduation ceremonies.

Summer Adult Education

As a result of two petitions to reconsider abandoning summer Adult Education classes in pottery, creative writing, painting and sewing, provided regular fees be raised to cover costs of instruction and operation, the board voted to reinstate the classes. The increase will also make it possible to enroll high school students at no fee. Only Dr. Robert Newton voted against the motion, because he feels strongly that summer school courses for high school students should be offered the district.

The position of custodial foreman was established, naming James Pirtle. A higher salary schedule reflecting cost of living increases was considered by the board.
